

INSTITUTE OF LANGUAGES

Introduction

The Institute of Languages dates back to the late 1950s when French was introduced as a degree course. In the 1960s German followed and in 1968 the study of indigenous languages of Uganda was embarked on through research. The Institute now offers a number of African Language Studies.

UNDERGRADUATE PROGRAMMES

DIPLOMA IN TRANSLATION AND INTERPRETATION STUDIES

Objectives

The training of the middle level translators in the various Ugandan Languages of different categories of works mentioned below:

- a) Novels from one Ugandan language to another.
- b) Folk-tales, proverbs, folk-songs, riddles, poems, from one Ugandan language to another.

Programme Structure

Semester I Core Courses
Course Code	Course	CU
TINT 100	Advanced Language Studies I	4
TINT 101	Language Analysis I	4
TINT 102	Translation and Interpretation Techniques I	4
TINT 103	Cross-Cultural Studies I	4
Elective Courses
TINT 104	Communication Skills I	4
TINT 105	Introduction to Another Language I	4

Semester II (Core Courses)
TINT 120	Advanced Language Studies II	4
TINT 121	Translation & Interpretation Techniques II	4
TINT 122	Current Issues I	4
TINT 123	Cross-Cultural Studies II	4
Elective Courses
TINT 124	Introduction to Another Language II	4
TINT 125	Communication Skills II	4
Year II: Semester I (Students take 4 core courses and 1 elective per semester)
TINT 200	Advanced Language Studies II	4
TINT 201	Acquisition of Terminology I	4
TINT 202	Language analysis II	4
TINT 203	Translation & Interpretation Techniques III	4
Elective Courses
TINT 204	Introduction to Another Language III	4
TINT 205	Communication Skills III	4
TINT 206	Cross-Cultural Studies III	4
Semester II (Core Courses)
TINT 220	Advanced Language Studies IV	4
TINT 221	Introduction to Computer Science	4
TINT 222	Current Issues II	4
TINT 223	Translation and Interpretation Project	4
Elective Courses
TINT 224	Administrative Management	4
TINT 225	Introduction to Another Language IV	4
TINT 226	Cross-Cultural Studies	4